

TBO Holidays Policy for Travel Affected by Coronavirus Outbreak

CORONAVIRUS

We at TBO Holidays are proactively focusing on helping customers who are affected by the coronavirus outbreak. Our Special Operations helpdesk will try its best to help waive cancellation charges for clients traveling world over . If you have a booking waiver request due to coronavirus outbreak, Please follow the steps below:

1. From the booking queue, please check if cancellation policy allows you to cancel booking free of charge.
2. In case your booking is non-refundable, cancel the booking from portal with applicable charges.
3. Post step 2, send a request to us through the online waiver form available on the website.

We hope this gesture will help our Global Travel Partners mitigate the immediate impact of the Coronavirus Outbreak. The Safety and Well-being of Our Clients Is Our Priority.
